

VENUE DETAILS FOR THE TRIAL EXAM PREPARATION LECTURES 2010 AT THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

theschoolforexcellence

HOW DO I GET TO THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY?

PUBLIC TRANSPORT DIRECTIONS TO THE UNIVERSITY OF SYDNEY

- Bus: A number of buses travel regularly to the University of Sydney. Take buses 412, 413, 435, 436, 437, 438, 440, 461, 480 or 483 from George Street CBD or Railway Square. Please refer to <http://www.sydneybuses.info/> for bus timetables or <http://www.131500.info/realtime/default.asp> to access personalised journey details.
- Train: Trains depart regularly from all lines to Central Station. Exit Central Station at Railway Square and board a bus to the University (see above for bus details). Train timetables may be viewed at <http://www.cityrail.info/timetable/index.jsp>
- Car: All day parking is available at Broadway Shopping Centre (opposite Victoria Park) and St John's College Car Park (entrance on Missenden Road). Limited on-street (metre) parking is available in Glebe (near Arundel St), Newtown (north King St) and in Camperdown around the Carillon Ave area.

DIRECTIONS TO THE CARSLAW BUILDING, CHEMISTRY BUILDING AND MADSEN BUILDING

Enter the University via City Road. Continue along City Road until you reach the Carslaw Building on your right, which is a short walk from City Road. The Chemistry and Madsen Buildings will be on your left.

DIRECTIONS TO THE MEREWATHER BUILDING

Enter the Mereweather Building via City Road. The Building is across the road from the Carslaw Building. See the map attached to your admission document.